"When Sami walked on campus as a freshman, she immediately had friends with similar passions. From a parent's perspective, it gave us peace of mind knowing that she had a framework of solid individuals around her."

Wisconsin Singers is a perfect fit for students with a passion for music performance or behind the scenes stage management, no matter what their major. Developing leadership and communication skills is a large part of our curriculum, allowing these great UW students the unique opportunity to gain invaluable real-world experience while sharing their talents across our state and nation as UW's "Official Ambassadors of Goodwill."

"So many students in the dorms say how distanced they feel from their peers and how "alone." Singers made my freshman year a successful and exciting one as a way to connect those who love music but prioritize their academics too!"

Wisconsin Singers CORE FOUR

Professionalism Scholarship Service Networking

1 Professionalism

As representatives of the UW, Wisconsin Singers are trained to speak articulately about our campus, to model the excellence that is the hallmark of our world-renowned university, and to present a Broadway-caliber show every time they step onto stage.

2 Scholarship

Wisconsin Singers students are eligible for scholarship dollars based upon their commitment to our university and their involvement in the management of the organization.

3 Service

Since 1967, Wisconsin Singers has helped to raise more than A MILLION dollars for service organizations. Students volunteer their time to work with area music students in free clinics while on-site, providing outstanding collegiate role modeling.

4 Networking

Hundreds of our alumni have gone on to become exceptional community and business leaders as a result of their Wisconsin Singers experience. Active alumni are a constant source of assistance for WS graduates looking for job opportunities.

Wisconsin Singers promises to be a "home away from home" and we continue to support each member following graduation and beyond.

Wisconsin Singers students are NEVER without a close-knit group of friends, supportive staff, and connected alumni.

Our organization shrinks a large campus into a small, supportive community, while we celebrate our families whenever we can.
